

Education and training facilitator

Lifecentre

30 hours

£24,000 - £30,000 full time equivalent salary (salary dependant upon experience and qualifications)

We are looking for an enthusiastic education and training facilitator to join our team. This is an exciting opportunity to lead on developing and delivering a range of specialist sexual violence training to staff, partner agencies and clients. The candidate is not expected to have knowledge of the subject area, as they will learn from and work closely with an experienced counselling team.

The successful candidate will be highly organised and an experienced communicator, confident in creating, delivering and reviewing training materials.

Lifecentre is a Christian Charity providing counselling services to survivors of rape and sexual abuse: www.lifecentre.uk.com.
